Dear Marty:

Our Gala was a huge success because of your attention to detail prior to the event. It was a pleasure working with someone who was so familiar with the technical details of emceeing a large event, as well as knowing how to captivate a large crowd. You provided us with a schedule of events that was broken down into minute intervals, which proved invaluable in keeping the program going smoothly. The video you prepared was hysterical and your dynamic personality wooed the crowd. I look forward to working with you again!
